

Plot Sequence

Exposition – the scene is set and background information provided

Rising action – the central conflict is introduced

Climax – the high point of the story

Falling action – the conflict lessens

Resolution – the conflict concludes; loose ends tied up